

Fun fashions for the smaller set

Several fashion lines and online shops for babies and kids have been "born" recently in Orange County. They're super cute and totally "ahhh" worthy:

Nursery Rhyme Tease is a line of clothing that combines literacy and fashion, offering adorable graphic tees based on classic nursery rhymes including "Old MacDonald," "Hey Diddle Diddle," "Humpty Dumpty," and "Itsy Bitsy Spider." You can also buy board book and t-shirt sets.

The Santa Ana-based line was created by Heather Sievers, a former teacher with a masters degree in curriculum and instruction. Shop online at nurseryrhymetease.com
